

WATER IN THE WEST

A UNIQUE SUMMER RESIDENTIAL PROGRAM IN IDAHO

Sunday, July 7–Thursday, July 25

Join us for a one-of-a-kind summer experience that is personal, engaging, and active at a school with a reputation for excellence: Riverstone International School in Boise, Idaho.

RIVERSTONE
INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

Using the theme, Water in the West, as a springboard, you will:

- Learn how water plays a role in the West through tours, presentations, and field trips; speak with professionals about how water impacts recreation, agriculture, and energy in Idaho;
- Learn and apply field and laboratory research techniques such as water quality/Ph testing, and create a comprehensive lab report from your research;
- Improve your English language skills and work on Duolingo test preparation.

Additionally, you will:

- Explore Idaho's lakes, rivers, mountains, and natural beauty;
- Raft, kayak, and camp with friends and instructors;
- Learn to camp and backpack in Idaho's Sawtooth Mountains;
- Visit world-famous Sun Valley - home of the nation's first ski resort and chair lift;
- Attend a rodeo. Boots, hats, and western gear shopping will be part of the experience to get into the Wild West spirit!
